Sharon Morkal will head up this program.

WORKSHOP INFORMATION

From Evie Fell

Workshops/open sews will be held on the Saturday after the KPQG monthly meeting. Anyone is welcome to come. You may bring something to work on and you may participate in the monthly project.

There are several changes this year.

First and importantly is the change of location. We will be back at Indiana Wesleyan continuing the established hours of 10am to 3 pm. This move incurred a rental fee. Therefore, a small fee of $5 for each attendee will be required and paid on the day of attendance. We will discontinue the raffle gifts at each workshop.

Great news for those attending. (A little something extra if you choose. You get something for your money and learn a little from a volunteer member.) Each month the committee will strive to have a small learning experience.

The April workshop will be an Open Sew. This is a good time to work on an unfinished project, a donation quilt, or start something new project. It is also a good time to see what other people in the group are creating. Bring your machine and supplies and have a fun day of sewing. Don't forget your $5 fee.

This Month's Guest— Linda Hale and Teri Dougherty

Linda started the Back Door, Inc. almost 46 years ago with two of her neighbors. The neighborhood ladies would get together and want to learn how to make things, and that's what launched the shop. Starting in Linda's basement, they quickly moved to a storefront, and over the years, the shop grew, moved, and grew again several more times. Teri has been part of the shop for 36 years.

Back Door Quilts now has over 5000 square feet, two long arm quilting machines, over 1000 bolts of batik, thousands of bolts of reproductions, basics, and bright. They have hundreds of samples for your inspiration.

Donation quilts for the Kokomo Police Department can be any size, since they deal with Items for the newsletter need to be sent to Lana Kirtley (lanak@bluemarble.net) by the second Wednesday of the month.

March's meeting had 62 members Present. We Now have 93 paid members. We had two new members in March—Becky Hermanson and Betty Hedges.

Thanks to Maggie Fellow for sharing her talents with us at the February workshop.
